AGED PIONEER IS DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

James E. Doran, Local Lawyer and Native of Ireland, Succumbed to Siege of Ill Health at Home Here Last Night—Burial This Afternoon.

James E. Doran, native of Ireland, and for 36 years a resident of Vernon, died at his home here last night, following an illness of more than six months duration. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4:30, services to be conducted by Dr. E. L. Moore, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, at the Underwood Funeral Home on East Pease Street. Interment will be made in East View cemetery.

Mr. Doran was born in Dunganon, Ireland, May 26, 1845, making him a little more than eighty years of age at the time of his death. He came to this country soon after the close of the Civil War and settled in Boston. He later went to Rutland, Vermont, and engaged in the dry goods business with a brother of W. O. Anderson of this city. The two partners moved to Tarrant County, Texas, some time afterwards, and one time owned the property where the Baptist Seminary is now located.

In 1889 the partnership was dissolved and Mr. Doran came to Vernon, then a struggling frontier town. He remained here continuously since that time. He was a highly educated man and spent much time reading. He was admitted to the bar as a lawyer after locating in Vernon, and was active in the practice of his profession for many years. During the past few years he devoted most of his time to the management of properties for absentee owners. He had been a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church, having joined in the old country.

Mr. Doran never married and the only relative in this country, so far as known to Vernon friends, is a brother living in Rhode Island. He has many relatives in Ireland, however, and kept up contact with them through correspondence.

Funeral services for the late Mr. Doran will be held at 4:30 p. m. at the Underwood Funeral Home, on East Pease Street, with interment in East View cemetery.

WINNING THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Winifred Cronch is shown above as she leads the field in the half mile run of the national interscholastic track meet recently held at Chicago, breaking the tape a few inches ahead of H. Riegall of Columbus, Ohio, after racing stride by stride throughout the 880 yards. The local chider path star stepped the half mile in 1:58.8.

HUMBLE BUYS DYSON LEASE

PAYS $165,000 FOR SIXTY-ACRE TRACT LOCATED NEAR NOBLE PRODUCER.

Another big lease sale was completed in the county last week when Humble Oil and Refining Company purchased the holdings of John Dyson and others for a consideration of $165,000. The holdings consist of forty acres in the southwest corner of section 47, and 20 acres in the southeast corner of section 46, block 4.

The lease has one producer, the No. 1 Waggoner, which was recently brought in for a production of 250 barrels in wildcat territory, picking up a new sand at 1800 feet. The lease offsets the Noble well.

Manis To Again Enter Filling Station Business

J. J. Manis, dispenser of oils and gas for 29 years is getting ready to go back into the business again. He disposed of his station on Texas street recently and is now erecting a modern two-story drive-in station on East Pease street, near his home. The upper part of the building will be used for house keeping rooms and contains four rooms each 12x14. A large awning will be placed over the driveway of the new station and several other modern improvements will be made. He will handle Gulf gasoline.

ELECTRA MAN IS BURIED IN EAST VIEW CEMETERY

William A. Talley, aged 68, for many years a resident of Electra, was buried in East View cemetery at 3:30 Sunday afternoon. Mr. Talley died at his home in Electra Friday afternoon after a long illness. He is survived by his widow and several children, all of Electra.

Local Merchants Agree To Close All Stores in Vernon National Independence Day

Vernon merchants decided to celebrate Independence Day on that day and no other, and all stores in this city, except drug stores, garages, and filling stations, will be closed all day Saturday, July Fourth, following a unanimous agreement of the local merchants yesterday. Farmers and others wishing to do holiday shopping are requested to do their buying Friday. Stores will stay open until 9 o'clock Friday night.

A large delegation of local citizens will go to Electra for the races and celebration program there on Saturday, although it has not yet been decided whether an official booster trip will be made to the meeting of the Red River District convention of the Chamber of Commerce.

The decision to close on Saturday instead of Friday was reached after an emphatic protest entered against the action of the stores in agreeing to close Friday. Several of the more patriotic merchants protested on the grounds that Independence day should be celebrated as Independence Day and not as a day of work.

Others advanced the opinion that all out-of-town buyers would be expected to the stores to close Saturday and would come to Vernon to do their buying Friday. With this in mind, several local merchants started a drive yesterday afternoon, and a short meeting was held at the office of the chamber of commerce. Men were sent to each business house in the city, and all agreed to close Saturday.

Clerks and other workers are expressing their approval of the new plan, as they will have two days off work together.

COMPANY "L" GOES TO CAMP NEXT THURSDAY

Captain and Thirty-Six Members of Local National Guard Unit Will Leave on Special Train for Annual Training at Camp Mabey.

Captain Clyde Watts and thirty-six members of Company "L," local unit of the National Guard, will leave on special train Thursday morning for Austin, where they will go into encampment at Camp Mabey Friday for two weeks. While at Camp Mabey the local boys will participate in the capital's "defense day test," other military maneuvers, during which they will be reviewed by the governor.

The local unit will encamp with one 2000 other members of the Texas National Guard, most of which will go from North Texas. The seventy-first infantry brigade will train as a single unit for two weeks, according to plans announced. The various companies will enter contests for military fitness while at Camp Mabey.

Young men of Wilbarger county who wish to make the trip and receive two weeks' pay while on a vacation may still sign up, according to a statement made by Captain Watts yesterday. Considerable difficulty has been encountered in obtaining new recruits here, as the young men seem to think that signing up to make the trip and enter the encampment is the same as signing up for some form of military service. Captain Watts states that this idea is erroneous, as men signing up for the encampment will be mustered out upon their return.

Thirty-six men are required to go from Wilbarger county, and if no new recruits are received all of the regulars now enlisted will be forced to make the trip, although some are in business and can hardly afford to be gone for two weeks at present. As new recruits sign up to make the trip, the regulars who have urgent reasons for staying here will be relieved.

James Condon To Leave Today For Visit in Ireland

James Condon is leaving today for a visit in Ireland. He will sail from a port near Boston and go directly to Queenstown, Ireland. He will visit relatives in County Cork and pay a visit to the graves of his parents. This is the second time that Mr. Condon has made the trip across the waters. Forty years ago, he made a visit to the old country. He has lived in America, fifty-two years ago and has lived in Wilbarger for many years. He says he intends to re-visit the scenes of his childhood and has promised to bring back a shillelagh for a friend out from the hillside that grows near the old home. He will return about September 1.

MRS. BOYLE AND DAUGHTER LAND SAFELY IN LIVERPOOL

Mrs. Eunice Wilson, received a cablegram yesterday from her mother, Mrs. Robert Boyle and sister, Miss Jayne, announcing their safe arrival at Liverpool, England. FLAMES SWEEP HALF A BLOCK

ROOMING HOUSE, BARBER SHOP, AND GARAGE DESTROYED SUNDAY.

Flames thought to have originated from the explosion of a gasoline iron at about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon swept away almost half a block of frame structures on Fannin street between Olive and Maiden. Total damage was estimated at $3,000, none of which was covered by insurance.

The fire started in the back of a barber shop and rooming house owned by William A. Beck, consumed that building and a hamburger stand nearby and set fire to a wagon standing between the hamburger stand and McKinney Brothers' garage and wrecking plant. The heat became so intense that a barrel of gasoline exploded inside the garage and the building was literally wrapped in flames almost immediately. Following the burning of the garage, Bob Cloung's horse-shoeing shop caught fire and was damaged considerably before the flames were extinguished.

A high wind from the west fanned the flames, and the Beck rooming house was practically destroyed before the arrival of the fire fighters. Lack of water further delayed the fighters.

MERCHANT ERECT UNIQUE SIGNS ON HIGHWAY HERE

J. A. Dixon is having some unique signs advertising his business, installed on the main highways leading into Vernon. They are in the order of large wind mills mounted on poles which when the wind blows sets a four sided sign to revolving telling of the different departments of his store. The signs are about twenty feet high, painted in red, white and blue and can be seen a long distance.

LOST FOR TWO YEARS PURSE IS RECOVERED

Hal Crawford, local man, lost a pocket book while hunting on Beaver Creek two years ago. Last week, the pocketbook was returned to him. A woman found the purse and contents and by an Odd Fellow receipt determined the owner. She wrote Mr. Crawford and returned the pocket book which contained some silver and paper. The silver was not tarnished and the papers were legible.

CONTINENTAL AND WHIBURT WELLS SCORE IMPORTANT STRIKES IN LOCAL POOLS

Whiburt Wildcat May Add Several Miles to South Vernon Pools—Continental Opens Up New Pay for East Part of Field.

Continental Oil company made the feature strike of the Wilbarger pools during the week-end with the completion of No. 4 Zipperle for an estimated 350-barrel flowing producer from fifteen feet of sand at 2311-2326 feet on the northwest quarter of section 80, block 14, H. & T. C. survey.

This completion is the first deep sand well on the east extension to the South Vernon field. This section has formerly proven most productive in the 1300-foot horizon. Few wells had gone below that level until recently, when following the general movement of operators throughout the local pools, several started for the 2300-foot pay. The sand picked up by the Continental is regarded as identical with the 2300-foot horizon found on the west side of the field by Winnie, Bridwell, Heydrick, Lawson and others, and considerably enhances the value of the east side of the field.

Whiburt Oil company's No. 1 Waggoner, a wildcat several miles from production of any sort, in section 8, block 17, H. & T. C. survey, is attracting attention among the Wilbarger operators since picking up a good oil showing late Sunday at 1287 feet. Some oil has been bailed from the hole, and underdraining to lower casing to the sand and test is in progress now. Should this well be brought in it will add the largest extension of recent date to the local pools. It is the southernmost drilling well in the Waggoner pasture and is located in the vicinity of the diversion lake.

Humble Oil company added two wells to local producers by bringing in No. 25 and 26 from the 2300-foot level last week. The new wells are located in the proven territory on the Stephens lease in section 83, block 14.

Indications are that Clois Greene has added another producing horizon to his ten-acre lease in section 100, block 14, by picking up a new pay for his lease at 2428 feet in No. 10. The well is in forty feet of sand, and is standing part way full of oil. The well will drill in today. If this sand makes a producer, it will be the eleventh producing horizon on the Greene lease.

Producer's Petroleum company has a good oil showing in No. 3 Dill at 2286 feet on section 84, block 14. Operations are being held up while casing is being lowered.

E. B. Lawson added to local production by getting a 650-barrel producer from the 2300-foot level after deepening No. 3 from the 1300-foot pay where it was making 175 barrels. The well is now in twenty-two feet of sand at 2320 feet.

Barkley and Meadows were last reported coring a sand at 1911 feet in No. 3 Stephens, located in the northeast quarter of section 83, block 14, H. & T. C. Survey. If this sand does not make an unusual showing the well will be carried to the 2300-foot level in an effort to pick up the big producer sand discovered in several wells. No. 1 Bond-Hawkins-Williams is drilling below a last reported depth of 830 feet in the northeast quarter of the same section and is expected to make a producer in the 1300-foot level uncovered in the Ray-Massey lease which offsets it to the east.

The Thelma Wells wildcat in section 50, block 4 is drilling below 1500 feet after picking up a gas sand at 1480 feet.

The Wilbarger pools have another woman operator in the person of Barbara Powell who spudded in a wildcat during the week-end on section 78, block 14.

Sheerin-McCanney - Lucy have some sort of a showing in the well in section 60, block 4, and are underdraining to set 6-inch casing.

Atlantic Oil Producing company's No. 5 Zipperle topped and is coring a sand at 1800 feet in section 80, block 14. Casing will be set and a test made. This well passed up a small producer in the 1300-foot sand. No. 1 Sigler is drilling at 1750 feet in section 51, block 2.

Connor-Croft is underdraining to set 6-inch at 2155 feet in section 48, block 17.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. White and daughter have returned from Kirkland where they were called to the bedside of Mrs. White's father, A. W. Bishop, who was seriously ill. He is slowly improving.

COURT ACTION BEATS SHERIFF

HIGH COURT GRANTS NEW TRIAL AFTER PART OF SENTENCE IS SERVED.

"What's the use?" is the apparent sentiment felt by Sheriff W. Frank Edmondson and District Attorney John A. Storey these days after hearing of the peculiar action taken by the Court of Criminal Appeals in the case of Steve Skinner who was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary by the local courts last fall. The Court of Criminal Appeals recently granted Skinner a new trial after he had served several weeks of his sentence.

Skinner was convicted by the local courts on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor. His attorney immediately filed an appeal for a new trial. The higher courts dismissed the appeal because of a slight error made by the defendant's attorney in applying for the appeal. Skinner read the notice of the dismissal of his appeal in the newspapers and mistook it for a notice of the dismissal of his case.

According to a state ruling, defendants have fifteen days in which to institute further proceedings after an appeal is dismissed. Believing that the charges against him had been dismissed, Skinner made no move to start other proceedings during the fifteen days following the denial of the right to appeal. He returned to his home in Throckmorton and wrote for his gun and other belongings being held here. When officials from Wilbarger took him into custody at the expiration of the period allotted him to start other proceedings, he protested the action vigorously, according to officials, maintaining that his case had been dismissed.

In accordance with the original sentence, local officers turned him to penitentiary authorities several weeks ago, and he has been serving his sentence. In the meantime another lawyer employed by him, took the matter up with higher courts, and succeeded in obtaining a new trial, although Skinner had already served part of his sentence.

Search For Dead Man Return With New Born Infant

To be summoned to hold an inquest over a dead man and to find instead of a corpse, a healthy howling baby boy was the pleasant experience of Judge T. J. Griffiths this morning about six o'clock. A telephone message to the Sheriff's department stated that a dead man man had been found near the bridge over Pease river, so Boyd McLeod, deputy sheriff, accompanied by Judge Griffiths set out to find the body. About 150 yards on the north side of the bridge, and lying near the edge of the pavement, where he would likely be discovered by passing motorists, the infant was found. He was partly dressed and wrapped up in other clothing and was about six hours old.

The baby was brought to a sanitarium here and apparently is all right after spending part of the night on its hard bed on the highway. No clue as to its parentage has been discovered. The man reporting the find to the Sheriff, stated another man had telephoned him to notify the officers.

Mayor in Austin Completing Sale Of Local Bonds

Mayor Harry Mason left for Austin Sunday where he will complete the final details of the sale of the street paving bonds recently voted here. He will have the bonds signed by state officials and will then deliver them to J. E. Jarrett & Co., who purchased them.

With the completion of the sale of the bonds, work on the streets will be pushed, according to local officials. Paving has already started on South Main street.

Tom Mix Coming in "Riders of the Purple Sage"

The Pictorium is presenting the great Western play, "Riders of the Purple Sage," Zane Grey's story with Tom Mix as Lassiter here Wednesday and Thursday.

In this drama of pioneer days, Mr. Mix portrays the part of a Western hero, who, like a devastating angel, swept through the countryside of the early settlement and made his name a terror to right a great wrong. He plays it so convincingly and with such a wealth of dramatic force that the role is destined to stand as one of his greatest.

The closing scene of this drama of the great Western desert is staged in the mountains, in a spot of great natural grandeur. To save a girl and her sweetheart from a force of pursuing rustlers, a huge rock is dropped down a sheer cliff, crushing to death many of the horsemen. Running through the entire picture is a powerful, absorbing love story that breathes the ruggedness and the wholesomeness of the great West. One of the biggest surprises is the discovery of the identity of the mysterious masked rider.

Friday and Saturday, "Rin-Tin-Tin," the wonder dog, will be here in "Tracked in the Snow Country." Another great play showing the wonderful sagacity of the German police dog that does everything but talk. The final thrilling fight between the dog and the villain, saving his master, the hero, the girl, Julian Marlowe, and the mine, leads one to believe that the dog really thinks.

"Bashful Jim," another Mack Sennett comedy, is on for Wednesday and Thursday. A third young man takes his girl to the movies and tries to be like the hero of the play—a cave man sheik.

Today is the last showing of "So

This Is Marriage." It is a stirring portrayal of an ultra-modern wife who has been bitten by the Jazz Bug, a husband who hopes for the best, and a bachelor friend.

'Thundering Herd' Coming to Vernon for Three Days

"The Thundering Herd," which will open a three day's run at the Vernon Theater July 2, 3, and 4, is bound to appeal to all levels of humanity. It will be hailed with the keenest delight by the average movie-goer because it contains some brand new thrills and bristles with exciting action. It will meet with the universal favor of the younger generations because it combines just the right proportions of drama and romance. And it is certain to attract the scholar and student because of its historical background.

The picture is based on Lucien Hubbard's adaptation of Zane Grey's famous novel, and is a story of the lawless west of 1870-76, when vast herds of buffalo roamed the plains and the Indian war cry was a thing of terror.

Briefly, it deals with the hardships of cravens of pioneers who abandon their farms in the middle west and make a drive for the buffalo fields of Wyoming and Montana, at that time a wilderness inhabited by hostile Indians. More particularly, the story concerns the romance of Tom Danner and Milly Fayre—a romance which exemplifies the truth of that old adage: "The course of true love never did run smooth."

The exciting adventures of the pioneers which culminate in a terrific battle with the Indians, and the harrowing experiences of the young lovers which reach a smashing climax during a spectacular stampede of two thousand maddened buffalo, provide a choice assortment of dynamic thrills for audiences to enjoy.

"Classmates," Richard Barthelmess' new First National picture, which comes to the Vernon Theater on Wednesday, centers some of its picturesque action about that famous path of romance, "Flirtation Walk," at West Point.

One of the most unusual situations ever used in a photoplay marks "Husbands and Lovers," a First National picture, directed by John M. Stahl, which is on for the last run today at the Vernon Theater. Lewis S. Stone, Florence Vidor and Lew Cody are the players who take part in the scene.

A girl is about to marry "the best friend," her divorced husband appears just before the wedding and see what happens.

THE FIRST WEEK IN JUNE WAS HOTTEST ON RECORD

Everybody in the eastern part of the United States realizes that the first week in June was the hottest in their recent recollections. It may prove comforting to know exactly how hot it was in comparison with other years, and to be told that for many of the places where the hot spell was felt it was the hottest week for June 1-7 on record.

The hot area stretched more than half-way across the United States, ending quite sharply along a line that passed about midway through the Dakotas, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico, and through the western end of Texas. On the other side of this line the weather was cold, freezing temperatures being recorded at many points; east of it the temperature exceeded normal from 3 degrees F. to 16 degrees F.

What the Neighbors Are Doing

A week from Thursday, Dan McNeely, came into town so he could buy some lumber for a big new barn he's building on a neighboring farm. Now this McNeely is one wise guy, he knows right well the reason why it don't pay him to work all day a sorting lumber every way to try to find a stick that's straight enough to make a pulpin plate. So after shopping round a while he loaded on his truck a pile of Long-Bell boards and took them out to build a barn that's good and stout. A neighbor saw this load go by and hollered out, "Hello, McNeely," "I see you got some pretty pine—I wonder where you got that kind?" But Dan just shifted into low and hollered back, "Why, don't you know? The trademark shows you plainly, pard—I got it at the Long-Bell yard."

While names give mere not actual, the incident above related is based on experiences at some of our lumber yards.

CLUB TO ENTER STATE CONTEST

LOCAL BOYS AND GIRLS WILL ATTEND SHORT COURSE BEGINNING JULY 27.

About ten boys and girls from the Willbarger county clubs will attend the sixteenth annual Farmers' Short Course which will be held at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, at College Station from July 27 to August 1, according to announcements of local county agents. Seven girls will be chosen from the girls' clubs of the county as local representatives, states Miss Emma Gunter, home demonstration agent. Miss Gunter will have charge of the girls making the trip, and P. D. Chaney, county agent, will be in charge of the boys.

An excellent program has been prepared for the club members this year, according to advance announcements. Among those on the program are: C. I. Christie, Director of the Extension Service, Purdue University; O. B. Martin of the U. S. Department of Agriculture; O. W. Warbington, national director of extension work; Miss Oja Mae Powell, field agent of the Southern States; Miss Edith Patterson, Ohio extension agent. Local club members who will attend will have the opportunity of hearing those whose travel, experience and training have rendered them peculiarly capable of entertaining and instructing farm boys and girls.

The girls going from this county will take part in the state contests for home demonstration club girls and women which will be held during the short course. Local contests to decide the winners who will represent Willbarger at the state contests will be held soon.

Any man, woman, boy or girl who desires to study and learn more about the solution of farm and home problems are eligible to register for the short course, according to Mr. Chaney.

THE SOUTH PLAINS RAILROAD WAR.

A hearing has been ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission to determine what permits will be granted for extension of railroad facilities into the South Plains country. Two great systems, the Burlington and Santa Fe, are seeking permission to build new lines in the territory, while a third, the proposed Texas, Panhandle & Gulf, is asking the Commission to deny applications of both the Burlington and the Santa Fe and hold the territory open until it can finance and build a line from Fort Worth to Tucuman, N. M.

It is doubtful if the last named line, which is thus far only a paper road, will figure very largely in the hearing. Both the Burlington and Santa Fe have the resources to begin work immediately and both are in position to finance the proposed lines through the period of development when it is likely that expenses will exceed earnings. Likewise, both of these roads have a considerable showing of logic to back their plans, but it is doubtful that either will get the permission sought in its entirety due to the fact that both are proposing to tap the same undeveloped sections. The Commission is not likely to grant permission for both lines to enter Silverton or Dismitt. The most probable outcome is that the new territory will be divided between the two lines.

The prospect of an extension of the Burlington is regarded with a great deal of interest by business interests in this section, since the Denver extension from Childress to Lubbock and Plainview would give direct connections over a single line of railway for shippers in Vernon and Wichita Falls to penetrate the South Plains. The lack of such facilities has been a serious handicap to manufacturers and wholesalers in this section. For this reason people in this immediate section will sympathize with the Burlington plea.

CALENDAR FIXING.

Advocates of calendar reform have a case to point out as evidence in support of their contention for a year of thirteen months of four weeks each in the fact that the Fourth of July falls on Saturday this year. Of course, in the cities, this will work out all right, because it has become a rather general custom for business concerns to close Saturday afternoons during the summer months, but in the smaller towns and cities, where Saturday is still the chief trading day, there will be a difficulty to surmount. Vernon merchants propose to close Friday, instead of Saturday.

But next year, we will have even a more complex situation when the Fourth falls on Sunday. This will have the effect of depriving many of the enjoyment of a holiday. Then two years later the Fourth will come on Tuesday. Then workers will be off Sunday, return to work for one day before getting their holiday.

The calendar reform advocates suggest a way out of all this. Their calendar would make a given day of the month fall on the same day of the week each year, thus eliminating the complications of fitting in holidays to avoid conflict with Sundays. Many of us, however, would oppose the reform because it would result in thirteen monthly visits from the bill collectors, instead of only twelve under the present arrangement. A move to decrease the number of months would be more popular.

CARE FOR INSANE.

According to an estimate by the chairman of the State Board of Control, the jails of Texas are now free from insane persons. The completion of a new institution at Rusk and the reception of more than 100 patients being responsible for the unusual condition mentioned by the Board chairman.

The neglect of the State's insane wards in the past few years has been a reproach to the Great State of Texas, albeit a reproach that was difficult to fix definitely, except that we might blame the Legislature for failure to provide adequately for this class of unfortunate. But even this appraisal of responsibility would not be altogether just, because of administrative difficulties and inability to forecast with any degree of certainty the number of insane who would require treatment for any two-year period.

Texas population has been increasing rapidly, and, while some progress has been made in the treatment of mental disorders thereby diminishing the ratio of insane to the whole population, the number of insane in Texas has just about kept pace with the growth in population. This fact is due largely, if experts in the treatment of mental diseases are correct in their belief, to lack of facilities in the State institutions to begin treatment in time to ward off complete mental break-down. Many such cases are curable. If they can be given the proper treatment promptly and it is the lack of facilities to render this service promptly that is to blame chiefly for the steady increase of this class of the State's wards.

The statement of the chairman of the Board of Control would indicate that the State is now in position to give prompt treatment and unless there is an unexpected increase in the number of patients sent to these hospitals we may soon hope for a decrease in the number of insane persons. There should be no excuse, however, for failure to keep pace with needs of this class of patients. The Legislature could very properly place a contingent fund at the disposal of the Board of Control to enable that body to expand. It is nothing short of criminal for a great State to neglect its insane, and now that we have caught up with the needs, every effort should be put forth to keep the insane out of jail and under proper care.

WHAT'S SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE IS SAUCE FOR THE GANDER

Pay others as you would have others pay you.

Follow this Golden Rule of business and your business reputation will be spotless.

Establish your credit, and keep it established.

Your entire position in society depends upon how you pay your bills.

Whenever you want to buy anything and charge it your record is investigated.

The credit bureau is kept informed and the bureau keeps the entire business world informed as to your credit.

Your banker, your business associates, your lodge, your friends, your employer, everyone with whom you come in contact accepts you or rejects you largely as you pay your bills.

If you move to another town your credit follows you.

IF YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD YOUR CHANCES FOR SUCCESS ARE GOOD.

IF YOUR CREDIT IS POOR YOUR CHANCES FOR SUCCESS ARE MIGHTY SLIM.

If you work for a living you must extend credit as well as receive it. If you are an employer you must extend credit to your customers for merchandise or service—perhaps for both.

If you are an employee you must extend credit to your employer until pay day.

If you won't extend reasonable credit you cannot stay in business. By the same token if you are not worthy of receiving reasonable credit you must sooner or later feel the pinch.

PAY YOUR BILLS. THAT'S THE ONLY WAY IN WHICH YOU CAN KEEP YOUR CREDIT GOOD. PAY YOUR BILLS WHEN THEY ARE DUE.

The little merchant around the corner has access to the credit bureau in just the same way that the large department store has. And remember the bureau has access to the little merchant too. His records are as an open book and his reports go forward to the bureau regularly.

If you don't want the other fellow to keep you waiting, don't keep him waiting. He depends on you exactly as much as you depend upon him.

Don't disappoint him and he won't disappoint you.

Marvin and Carpenter Meet in Premier Heavy-Weight Bout Here on July Fourth

According to all indications, the premier bout of the season will be staged at the local arena next Saturday night when Tommy Marvin of New Orleans and Moco Carpenter, two light heavy-weight contenders of championship caliber, step ten rounds in the main event of a special July Fourth program prepared by local promoters. Carpenter and Marvin are both strong contenders for the championship belt in their weight, and both have issued open challenges to any man in the world within 160-175 pounds weight. Efforts have been made in several large cities to bring these two padded mitt artists face to face, and Vernon fans are indeed, lucky to have an opportunity to see this fast-stepping couple in the local arena.

Moco Carpenter is a highly praised boxer, and has a record to prove him worthy of the prize. With several years of ring experience to his credit, the Wichita Falls milt slinger has the distinction of never scribes time to catch up with their notes.

Carpenter will undoubtedly need all his speed and aggressiveness in order to stop Tommy Marvin, a lad who has the distinction of having swung the padded gloves at Jack Dempsey's chin on more than one occasion. Besides being Dempsey's sparring partner for several months, Marvin fought the champion two exhibition bouts.

Marvin fought an exhibition bout here with Cyclone Burns a few weeks ago, and won the favor of local fans by the manner in which he stood up to the hard swings of the gigantic boxer. He knocked Burns out a week later in an exhibition bout at Wichita Falls. He recently hung the kyo on the jaw of Iron Jaw Ferguson of Oklahoma City.

Marvin arrives in Vernon today and will be stationed at Harris' camp ground during the week, and may be seen working out each afternoon at the gymnasium in Elks' Hall.

Cliff Castleberry will try his speed on Battling Clark of Wichita Falls, a semi-professional light weight. This will be Castleberry's first debut with boxers out of the amateur class, and much prediction as to the outcome is going on among local followers of Castleberry.

Fans will be allowed to see their favorite, Ralph Parker in action again Saturday when the heavy milt slinger takes on J. K. Castleberry. Parker is confident as to outcome, and freely expresses the belief that his right will take care of the situation.

Local fight fans would hardly be satisfied with any boxing program in which their favorite, Rabbit Nye, did not take part, and local promoters, knowing this, will match the popular boxer with some one.

Luolin, William, Inez and Vera Storey, accompanied by their uncle, Clare Cohen will leave tomorrow by automobile for Florence, Colorado, where they will visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ace Cohen, Mrs. Storey and baby daughter will join the party later.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Andrews spent the week-end with relatives at Crowell.

Misses Louise McCrary and Annie Cagle spent Sunday in Altus, Okla.

They Will Prosecute Scopes

Here, grouped about William Jennings Bryan, are the attorneys who will conduct the case of the State of Tennessee against John T. Scopes, accused of violating the law by teaching the theory of evolution in his Dayton, Tenn., classroom. Left to right, H. E. Hicks, Judge J. D. McKenzie, W. C. Haggard, Bryan, Harry M. Lawrence and S. K. Hicks.

LIONS BANQUET IN ALLINGHAM PARK

Members of the Lions' club enjoyed a picnic Friday evening in Allingham Park. In a race for attendance record, the winning side, with George A. Long as captain, was banqueted most royally by the losers.

headed by George E. Darden. A varied program was given for the evening, consisting of speeches by Mrs. Leon Brown, George Long and O. L. Pearson and readings and stunts. A record breaking attendance was noted when it came time for the supper. Members and their families were entertained.

CUPID KNOTS 1 A DAY IN JUNE

MONTH NOT SO POPULAR AS MAY AMONG WILBARGER
COUNTY BRIDES.

Allowing Dan Cupid the allotted day of rest each week, the little match-maker checked in one completion in Wilbarger county for each work day during the month of June, known all over the world as the month which brides-to-be choose for the month of their marriage. In the thirty-day month, twenty-six marriage licenses were issued by the local county clerk's office.

However, June does not appear to be so popular among the marriageable young women of Wilbarger county, as a smaller number of licenses were issued during June than in the preceding month. Thirty-three licenses were issued during May, according to the records at the county clerk's office.

June marriages are apparently more popular among the local young people than they were last year, however, as only twenty chose to marry in June, 1924.

The young men evidently have more nerve on Saturday than on any other day during the week, as records show that more licenses are bought on that day. Monday ranks second as the day for the purchase of license.

DANIEL PETERS

Daniel Peters, a farmer of Longtown, Pa., is convinced, he has told authorities, that he is Charles Brewster Ross, whose mysterious kidnapping in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1874 proved to be one of the most sensational crimes of history. Interest in the kidnapping is still alive, after fifty years, throughout the world. Peters bases his claim upon the deathbed confession to him of the woman he had believed his mother.
